Please see a sidesperson if you need access to the words of the readings for any reasons related to hearing.

SUPPORTING UKRANIAN REFUGEES

At St. Leonard's we are exploring ways in which we can start supporting those who will be coming into our community from the Ukraine.

Please can you let the church office (office@stleonard-streatham.org.uk) know if you are:

1. Becoming a host.
2. Interested in supporting those who are hosting in practical ways such as childcare, shopping, lifts, language support, admin/ benefits/application forms etc.
3. Willing to contribute financially to a support fund, held by St Leonard's to be deployed as need arises.

Weekly Music Update

This Sunday morning, the choir will be singing Felton Rapley's little known 'Though I speak with the tongues of men', for which one of our scholars, André, will be our baritone soloist. Choral Evensong is at the usual time of 4.30pm and music includes Weelkes' Short Service and an anthem by contemporary composer John Rutter.

On Saturday 28th May at 5pm, our three senior scholars from the Guildhall School will be giving a recital at St Leonard's in aid of the Choral Scholarship fund for the net academic year. It promises to be a fantastic hour of song and opera arias! Tickets are £10 and can be purchased after any service from the Director of Music.
